BOARD OF ALDERMEN,

Monday, May 24, 1852. Present: Messrs. Dove, Magruder, Bayly, Wilson, Towers, Borrows, Sweeny, Maury, French, (President,) Wirt, Thornley, Gordon

Morgan, and Page.

The Chair laid before the Board the following communication from C. H. Wiltberger, late Register of the city s Countr of Washington, (D. C.,) May 24, 1852.

To the Board of Aldermen, City of Washington:
Gentlemen: Nothing but a sense of duty compels me to trouble you and to ask your indulgence for a few moments. By communications made to your Board on 12th April last from the joint committee on the late Collector's accounts; the other, 10th May instant. from ex-Mayor Seaton,—the impression has gone abroad that no statement of the Collector's accounts had been made to the Register, when at the same time he reported to the Mayor that there had been.

the same time he reported to the Mayor that there has been.

When I entered upon the duties of Register, I found a plan stready adopted under which the Collector had mad his annual statement of accounts to the Register; and, secing no reason to object to any mode adopted under the 'Old Cato,' the same form was continued during my term of office, and also after I left.

This stat ment, and nothing else, was what was reported to the Mayor as having been made by the Collector. The committee do not say that no statement was made by the Collector, but that he did not make such as wear required by Iaw. Now, whether these statements were "according to law," or the best that could be made under the law, it is not my wish to contend. The statements are now on file in the Register's office, and can be seen by any one wishing to make the examination, and I think exonerate me from any impression of having reported to the Mayor what did not exist.

I am, gentlemen, your very humble servant.

I am, gentlemen, your very humble servant. C. H. WILTBERGER.

The amendment of the Board of Common Coun cil to the bill for the relief of William Fletcher was taken into consideration and concurred in Mr. THORNLEY, from the Committee of Claims, reported without amendment the bill from the Board of Common Council for the relief of William H. same, made a written report thereon, recommend-ing, by way of amendment, a substitute for the amendment of the Board of Common Council.

And the question thereon being taken by yeas and pays, it was decided in the affirmative, as

Protection from Lightning.

Protection from Lightning.

The undersigned, being the duly appointed Agent of Speatt's Electrican and Electro-Metallument Lightning. The undersigned, being the duly appointed Agent of Speatt's Electrican and Electro-Dotality e offer these apperior Rods, of Spiral-twisted, Carbonized Annealed from, with Zinc Protectors, and Electro-Dositive elements combined in their manufacture; thus rendering them equal to copper as conductors. They are in ten-feet lengths, with accurately-fitted brass-screw connecting joints, an entire new style of metallic (patentéd) attachments, for brick or frame buildings; also, glass isolaters, of a novel and ingenious construction, patented,) forming a lock; the whole mounted with a solid platinum silver point, (patented,) seelve inches long, surrounded at the base with three angular negative magnets, which possess the power, to an extraordinary extent, of discharging the opposite elements of the most fearful thunderstorm, and embrace the entire perfect of science up to the present time; the whole constituting the most magnificent and perfect silent conductor ever presented to the public.

Safety has not been compromised by affording these excellent rods at such low rates; the greatest attention has been given to their construction, so as to be readily attached. The astonishing power of the negative magnets, in discharging the air of its opposite elements, has been clearly demonstrated by the Electrometer, when unmagnetized points have shown but slight results, though placed under the same conditions. In fact, they gather and silently discharge electricity from the atmosphere when you would scarcely suspect any being present.

These improvements being secured by double letters patent, you are hereby cautioned against laying yourselves liable, by purchasing of those who are not authorized, or who are substituting inferior imitations. All agents duly appointed can show their certificates. Have good rods or none.

Washington City.

I do hereby certify that I have app lied various powerful chemical re-agents to Spratt's Patent Points for Lightning. Rods, and that the results of these experiments convince me that they will resist the action of atmospheric causes, and thereby preserve the extremity sharp—a condition most essential to protection against lightning. The re-agents used in the above experiments were a solution of chloride of sedium, (common salt, acetic acid, sulphuric acid, and hydrechloric acid. With the first, there was no action on the metal; with the several acids, there was very slight—a fact sufficient to show that atmospheric influences would have no sensible effect.

JOHN LECONTE, Prof. of Nat. Phil. et Chem.
UNIVERSITY OF GA., October 8, 1850.

The Lightning Conductors of Mr. Spratt, offered to me, are well calculated to perform the office for which they are intended. Yours, truly, intended. Yours, truly.

Lexingron, Kr., February 20, 1850.

Chicago, September 3, 1850.

This may certify that I have examined, somewhat critically, James Spratt's Patent Lightning Rods, and that I am of opinion that it is constructed on scientific principles. For combining durability, chespness, and efficacy, I deem it equal, and I think superior, to any other rod ever offered for my inspection.

Augusta, (Ga.) November 11, 1850.

This will certify that I have examined the Lightning Rods, Metallic Points, and Isolating Attachments, manufactured by Mr. Spratt, and regard them as constructed in conformity to the general laws of the electric fluid; and the metallic compound constituting the Points, as promising, from the result of several tests to which they were submitted, to resist for years the action of those atmospheric causes most likely to corrode them.

A. MEANS,

Prof. Phys. Sc., Emory College, Ga., and Prof. Chem. and Pharm., Medical College, Ga.

The Lightning Conductors put up by Mr. Henry M. Smith, of this city, on the plan of Mr. Spratt, appear to me to be very well devised; and, in point of mechanical construction, are the best 1 have ever seen.

It is to be hoped that the use of these Rods may become general, as an mportant auxiliary defence against a danger which must be regarded as of no ordinary magnitude, to
